Symbolism

Introduction

Baptism is the next step in obeying the Mighty One. It is a symbolic act which our Messiah Himself submitted to for our example. The ceremony of baptism is performed by complete immersion in water, representing death, burial and resurrection. Baptized individuals become adopted children of the Mighty One, spiritually begotten, awaiting the fulfilment of their adoption into the Mighty One's spiritual family at the return of Messiah.

G4957 - συσταυρόω systauroo – to crucify with

G4717 - σταυρόω stauroo – to drive down stakes

Vines Dictionary of NT Words - Cross, Crucify:

denotes, primarily, "an upright pale or stake." On such malefactors were nailed for execution. Both the noun and the verb stauroo, "to fasten to a stake or pale," are originally to be distinguished from the ecclesiastical form of a two beamed "cross." The shape of the latter had its origin in ancient Chaldea, and was used as the symbol of the god Tammuz (being in the shape of the mystic Tau, the initial of his name) in that country and in adjacent lands, including Egypt. By the middle of the 3rd cent. A.D. the churches had either departed from, or had travestied, certain doctrines of the Christian faith. In order to increase the prestige of the apostate ecclesiastical system pagans were received into the churches apart from regeneration by faith, and were permitted largely to retain their pagan signs and symbols. Hence the Tau or T, in its most frequent form, with the cross-piece lowered, was adopted to stand for the "cross" of Christ.
