The Sabbath Day

Introduction

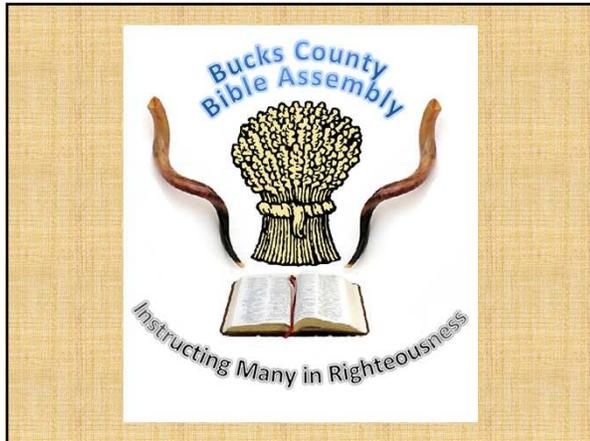

The seventh day Sabbath was instituted by YHWH at creation for all mankind. He sanctified it and made it set apart. It was reaffirmed as part of the Ten Commandments. Y'HoShUA is the Master of the Sabbath; it has been observed by Messiah; the apostles and the New Testament church from the first century right up to today. Y'HoShUA expects his people to be observing the Sabbath day in the end times. It is a perpetual sign of the covenant between YHWH and His people and its observance is fundamental to the believer's covenantal relationship with YHWH.
